

Affidavit of Support

F-1 international students applying for a Form I-20 must provide proof of financial capability for his/her studies at University of the Cumberland (§ Sec. 214.2(f)). This can be done with the applicant's personal funds, or by sponsorship. If financial documents are submitted that are not in the student's own name, then the following notarized affidavit of support is required.

The total funds on the affidavit and financial documentation must be equal to or greater than the total estimated expenses indicated below.

Estimated expenses for masters programs: $18,150 per academic year

Estimated expenses for doctoral programs: $22,350 per academic year

If the student has a spouse or other dependent that will be joining them in the U.S., the above-mentioned fees will increase by $6,000 USD for a spouse and $3,000 for each child under the age of eighteen (18). All dependent names must be listed below (if applicable).

I Nara bahadur khadka hereby certify that I am willing (Print name of sponsor)

and able to provide the amount of $ 26818.58 in U.S. dollars to meet the expenses incurred

by khadka Sujita
(Print student's family name) (Print student's first/given name) and his/her dependents as listed below during the length of the student's study at University of the Cumberland. I attest that the above named student and his/her dependents will not become a public charge while in the United States. I have authorized the release of my supporting financial documents to verify that the promised financial resources are available to me. I affirm that I know and understand the contents of this affidavit signed by me and that the statements are true and correct.
